

SECCO IMPACT MONITOR MATRIX

1 Social significance and local economic impacts – “Yes We Can”

1A Target group(s) Organising for and by whom	1B Places and time Where and when?	1C Flows and materials What ?	1D origin investments and driver(s) How ?
---------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------

2 Connectivity and cohesion– “character of change”

2A to other urgencies or target groups Why else	2B with other places Where else	2 C Up-scaling possibilities How else	2D projected added values or “evaded costs” What else
-----------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------

3 Quality and innovation – “better than now, better than ever”

3A Improvement Quality of life such as health – social networks How more inclusive ?	3B Physical neighbourhood improvement How more attractive ?	3C Improving footprints Lifecycles How more effective ?	3D Transition steps to Cyclic economy both formal and informal How more efficient?
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

4 Quantity and range of impact – “more than just that”

4A improvement – work & employment Social perspective	4B Scope of learning environment Local perspective	4C Capacity building know how Human perspective	4D Capital gains – new businesses Economic perspective
-----------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------